

Virtual Scientific Roundtable
“Digital Challenges in Health Law: From Telemedicine to AI”

17 June 2021
9:00 – 1:30 (CET)
ZOOM

PROGRAMME

9:00 – 9:15	Introductory Remarks
9:15 – 9:45	Luca Rinaldi The right to a human in the loop in AI for healthcare BioLaw Research Group (BioDiritto) at the University of Trento
9:45 – 10:15	Audrey Lebret Equitable Access to transplantation: a Human Rights approach to the algorithmic allocations of organs Centre for Advanced Studies in Biomedical Innovation Law (CeBIL) at the University of Copenhagen
10:15 – 10:30	Break
10:30 – 11:00	Christian Günther Patient Autonomy, Artificial Intelligence and the Law Max Planck Institute for Social Law & Social Policy
11:00 – 11:30	Federico Carmelo La Vattiata AI and healthcare: risk-management and criminal law BioLaw Research Group (BioDiritto) at the University of Trento

11:30 – 11:45	Break
11:45 – 12:15	Louise C. Druedahl The unmet needs of AI regulation for medicines and medical devices Centre for Advanced Studies in Biomedical Innovation Law (CeBIL) at the University of Copenhagen
12:15-12:45	Lauren Tonti From Wild West to Wunderkind: Comparing Legal Approaches to Telemedicine Quality across Jurisdictions Max Planck Institute for Social Law & Social Policy
12:45-1:00	Concluding Discussion & Remarks
1:00- 1:30	Optional Brown Bag Lunch