Shaping the Future of Academic Freedom: Insights from Student Lobbying in Europe

Speaker

Lauren Pray, European Students' Union (ESU)
Human Rights and Solidarity Coordinator.

This talk discusses the activities and power of student lobbying in Europe, from the formation of a student rights charter to recent international collaborative projects. We will delve into the connection between student activism and academic freedom and explore the influence of these initiatives on European education policy and fundamental values.

Organized within Module Jean Monnet ESAF - European Societies and Academic Freedom: Patterns, Problems, Solutions
