Inaugural Lecture of the EU-FLAG Module Jean Monnet Course Food Law and Globalization

Mapping the boundaries of food law and globalization

Prof. Ferdinando Albisinni, Universitas Mercatorum

February 23, 2021, 11-13

The event will take place on-line through the Zoom platform. To get the access code please contact Dr. Matteo Ferrari (matteo.ferrari@unitn.it)

The EU-FLAG (Food Law And Globalization) Jean Monnet module aims at developing a better understanding of European food law and how it interacts with the dynamics characterizing international markets, exploring the dialogic relationship existing between the rules of the agri-food sector and globalization.

The inaugural lecture of the EU-FLAG module will be held by prof. F. Albisinni who will chart the course to sail through the intersections between European food law and globalization processes.
